

Title	Beginning	Problem	Make it Bigger
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Last thing - Should be catchy, and... - Tell what the story is about (but not everything) 	A _____ (a kind of person {like boy, woman, etc.}, or a job, {like astronaut, plumber, princess, etc.}, or an animal, or even a thing {like a tree, a sock, etc.}) named _____ wants _____ (can be something very ordinary {like lunch, or to be left alone}, or something bigger {like a friend, or fame} or something within themselves, {like courage}).	Something that makes it difficult to get what they want.	Either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Something that the main character tries to do to solve the problem, or... - Something that makes it even harder - Start small
Like last time (maybe a little bigger)	The final obstacle	Either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - They finally get what they wanted, or . . . - We find out what they got instead 	Shows what happens after <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Maybe things are exactly the same as before, or . . . - The character's life is very different
Bigger!	Even Bigger!	Solution	End

Title

Beginning

Problem

Make it Bigger

A _____ named _____ wants _____
_____.

Bigger!

Even Bigger!

Solution

End